

Wearing of Tyvek with the Chest Area Being Transparent

- Wearing of Tyvek with the chest area (where an APD is put on) being transparent has started on October 15 for the purpose of visually checking the APD from the outside of Tyvek.
- This rule is applied mainly on the workers who engage in work with high radiation exposure dose. Application of the rule to other workers will also be considered.

APD

* These images may be different from the actual condition.