

( Reference )

Medical system in Fukushima Daiichi, Daini Nuclear Power Station and J-Village

1.Current medical system is as follows (It will change on May 29 about Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station)

	New/Old	Medical Doctor	Morning and Night	Nurse	Facility
Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station	Old	1 doctor (shift, including radiologist <sup>(*1)</sup> )	Day duty, but often stay overnight	Absence	Main Anti-earthquake Building (Initial medical care, Health exam)
	New	1 doctor (shift, including radiologist <sup>(*1)</sup> )	24 hours	Absence	Main Anti-earthquake Building (Initial medical care, Health exam)
Fukushima Daini Nuclear Power Station		1 doctor (dedicated, sometimes shift)	24 hours	2 persons per shift	Main Anti-earthquake Building (Initial medical care, Health exam) Visitor's Hall (Accommodate Contaminated Injured)
J-Village <sup>(*2)</sup>		Tokyo Electric Power Hospital (shift) Emergency doctor (shift)	24 hours Day duty	2 persons per shift	Medical center

(*1) The industrial physician of radiologist who contracted with TEPCO's headquarter is sometimes dispatched to the Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station

(*2) There are other 1 technologist (shift) of day duty from National Institute of Radiological Sciences and medical officer of the self-defense force (shift) for 24 hours.