

Steel Framing Construction for the Cover to be Installed for Fuel Removal at Unit 4 at Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station: Installation of 2 Columns of the First Layer

Steel framing construction for the cover to be installed for fuel removal at Unit 4 has been started today (January 8, 2013). Two columns (out of six) of the first layer have been installed.

Outline

Date: January 8, 2013

Time: 8:33 AM - 11:45 AM

Number of workers involved:

40 (20 x 2 groups)

First column being installed

First column installation complete

Second column being installed

Second column installation complete

Photos taken by TEPCO on January 8, 2013