

Steel Frame Construction for the Cover to be Installed for Fuel Removal at Unit 4 at Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station: Completion of the Third Layer of Steel Frame

Today (March 13, 2013), the third layer of the steel frame of the cover to be installed for fuel removal at Unit 4 has been completed.

< Outline >

Period: March 9-13, 2013

Materials used: 6 columns and 7 beams (Total: 13)

Simulated image of the cover to be installed for fuel removal

The third layer of steel frame completed

Steel frame up to the third layer has been completed today

Photo taken on March 13, 2013 by TEPCO