

The transportation pump setting situation for disaster prevention tanks under the ground

Setting the pump for transferring distilled water from process main building to disaster prevention tanks under the ground.

