

< Reference-3 > Optional Contract Menu Available To Customers

Category	Optional Contract Menu	Summary
Low Voltage Customers	Time-Specific Lighting “8-Hour Night Service” (“Otokuna (Savings) Night 8”) Time-Specific Lighting “10-Hour Night Service” (“Otokuna (Savings) Night 10”)	An option that offers discount rates at night with higher rates during the day. Electricity rates decline the higher the proportion of electricity consumed at night.
	Season- and Time-Specific Lighting (“Denka Jozu”)	Recommended for residential customers who use an electric water heater and other kinds of overnight thermal storage equipment, as well as an electric kitchen. A discount for customers with all-electric homes is also available.
	Electric Kitchen Home Contract (“Smile Cooking Discount”)	An option that offers discounted electricity charges for IH cooking heaters and other electric equipment.
	Low Voltage High Load Service Contract	An option that offers discounted electricity charges through the efficient use of both lighting and power equipment throughout the year.
	Low Voltage Thermal Storage Adjustment Contract	An option that offers discounted electricity charges for shifting consumption from daytime to nighttime through the use of thermal storage systems such as thermal storage air conditioners.
	Automatic Bank Transfer Discount	A discount is available to customers paying electricity bills regularly and without delay through automatic bank transfer.
	Advance One-Time Payment Contract	A discount is available to customers paying electricity bills six months or one year in advance, in a single transaction.

High voltage customers	Season- and Time-Specific Commercial Power Service Season- and Time-Specific High Voltage Power Service	Options with different electricity rates for different seasons and times of day to offer lower rates for customers who shift their power consumption from peak hours and seasons to nights, Sundays, and holidays.
	Commercial Holiday High Load Power Service High Voltage, Holiday, High Load Power Service	Options that offer lower electricity rates on holidays and higher rates on weekdays. Customers shifting electricity consumption from weekdays to holidays enjoy cheaper electricity charges.
	Commercial Power Service II Season- and Time-Specific Commercial Power Service II Commercial Holiday High Load Power Service II High Voltage Power Service II Season- and Time-Specific High Voltage Power Service II High Voltage, Holiday, High Load Power Service II	Options that offer discounts to customers using electric facilities efficiently throughout the year to improve load factor.
	Commercial Electric Kitchen Service Contract	An option that offers discounted electricity charges for commercial customers who use electric kitchens and kitchen equipment.
	Commercial All-Electric Service contract	Discounted rates are available to commercial customers covered under both the Commercial Electric Kitchen and Commercial Thermal Storage Adjustment Contracts, whose sole heat source is electricity.
	Peak Hours Adjustment Contract	Discounted rates are available to customers who control use of electric power by modifying lunch times through the use of thermal storage equipment, etc. during summer days when the load factor is high.
	Commercial Thermal Storage Adjustment Contract Industrial Thermal Storage Adjustment Contract	Option offering discounted electricity charges for customers who shift consumption from daytime to night through the use of thermal storage facilities such as thermal storage air conditioning systems.
	Low or high voltage customers	Night Only Power Service Night Only Power Service II
Snow Melting power service		Discount rates are available to customers who use electric power to melt snow for a limited period every year, and who can set a daily two-hour break during this period.